

Public invited to participate in Kolache Festival events

The 48th annual Prague Kolache Festival is scheduled for Saturday, May 5. The festival is designated an Oklahoma Centennial Event.

Anyone interested in participating in the 11 a.m. parade is requested to get an application, which explains the guidelines. Theme for the parade is “Celebrating 100 Years of Statehood.” Prize money is awarded to float, drill teams and animal/equestrian winners.

Applications are also being accepted for Arts & Crafts booth space, which are set up in the City Park around the gazebo.

A Food & Beverage Contest is open to the public on festival day at Park Pavilion 1, located south of the main grandstand. Contestants are asked to bring their entries by 9:30 a.m. Wine makers are invited to submit one pint entries for two categories, grape and fruit. Homemade bread and kolaches are also in the contest. First place winners receive $50 cash awards and a Best of Show among all entries a $100 prize. Plaques are also awarded.

For further information and applications, call the festival office at 405-567-4866 or online at www.praguekolachefestival.com.
