

(Editors Note: The article last week regarding the Kolache Festival Food & Wine Contest incorrectly stated that klobase and beer would be judged. The items to be judged are kolaches, bread and wine. We apologize for this error.)

Everyone is invited to participate in the Food & Beverage Contest to be held at the Kolache Festival on Saturday, May 5.

The contest is for homemade kolaches, bread, and wine.

The contest will be held at Park Pavilion #1, located south of the Main Grand Stand on Main Street. Participants should take their entries to Park Pavilion #1 by 9:30 a.m. the day of the festival. There is no pre-registration required.

Prizes are awarded for 1st through 3rd places in each division and a Best of Show from among all entries received.

First place winners receive $50 and Best of Show is awarded $100. Plaques are also awarded.

Those submitting kolaches should bring (3) on a paper plate wrapped in clear plastic; one loaf of bread; and one pint of wine.

There are two categories for wine: grape and other fruit.

Judging of the entries is based on the taste and appearance.

Winners of the contest will be announced at the grandstand following the parade and prizes awarded at that time.
