There is ample parking available west of town at the middle school and high school campuses, which are located on Highway 62. This is approximately 4 blocks from the grandstand at the end of the Parade route.

We know your participation in our parade would draw much excitement and would enhance it greatly. Come experience the Czech Tradition of having a good time.

Our festival includes food booths, a carnival, a huge arts & crafts show, free entertainment at the grandstand including Czech costumes and Royalty crowning, Kolache eating contest, folk dancers, singers, bands, and our famous polka street dance from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. followed by fireworks to close the night. All other attractions are located down the strip on Highway 62 from the grandstand to the stoplight.
